New York, July 21 -Robert G. Ingersoll died at his bome in Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., this afternoon, of

Mr. logersoll went to his summer home in Dobbs Ferry two days ago apparently in good health. Shortly after his arrival there he complained of a slight indisposition. He spent this morning in his room and shortly before he was stricken his wife offered to have his lucheon sent up to him so that he would not have to walk down stairs to the dinning-room below. He laughingly replied that while he did not feel quite as strong as he us used to, he guessed he was not yet an invalid and would go down with the others. As he fin shed speaking and was about to rise he fell back into his bair. A physician was immediately summoned, but when he reached the neuve he found that Mr. Ingersoll had died almost instan ly The phy sician did not give the cause of death but the family believe it was due to apoplexy. We are using the deserted houses of the insurgents for parracks. We will probably stay here until after the rainy season is over, and then if the insurgents have not surrendered, will round up the rest of them.

The insurgents seem to have lost their confidence and nerve, and think will soon give up, and become reconciled to the American govern-

We have done some very hard marching, and have had several skirmishes with the rebels, but have not lost any men out of our company.

I will give you a list of some of the most important towns we have passed through.

When we left the trenches in front of Manilla we marched to Calvocan, took the cars from there to Malolus and came from there to Bagbag. We crossed the river and came on to Calumpit, then marched up the river to San Luis; two gun boats came up the river ahead of us. We had an engagement there but the gunboats did not work.
